DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-27 have been canceled.

1. Applicant's election without traverse of Invention II (claims 28-36) in the reply filed on 07/14/06 is acknowledged.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -

- (e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.
- 3. Claims 28-32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Kim (U.S. Patent 6,800,542).

As to claim 28, Kim discloses a conductive structure as shown in figures 1-2 comprising a first conductor (12, column 3, line 36);

a plurality of atomic layers of a second conductor (13, column 3, line 47) directly on the first conductor; and a first material (13A, 14A) directly on the plurality of atomic layers of the second conductor, remote from the first conductor, the first material being penetrable by the plurality of atomic layers of the second conductor relative to at least a second material other than the second conductor.

As to claim 29, Kim disclose the first conductor (12) comprises a platinum group metal (Ru), the first material comprises a halogens the second conductor comprises a metal and the second material comprises oxygen (column 4, line 52-column 5, line 16).

As to claim 30, Kim further comprising a substrate (11, column 3, line 32) on the first conductor (12), remote from the plurality of atomic layers of the second conductor (13).

As to claim 31, Kim discloses the substrate comprises an integrated circuit wafer (column 1, line 14).

As to claim 32, Kim discloses the first material comprises about a monolayer of the first material.

4. Claims 33-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Park et al. (Pub No. 2005/0124154A1).

As to claims 33-36, Park et al. discloses a conductive structure as shown in figures 1-3 comprising: a substrate (300) comprised an IC wafer, paragraph [0013, line 4)

- a first layer comprising ruthenium (a barrier layer 330),
- a second layer (340) comprising a plurality of atomic layers of copper directly on the first layer comprising ruthenium (330); and a third layer comprising iodine (370) directly on the second layer comprising a plurality of atomic layers of copper, remote from the first layer comprising ruthenium, see column 8, paragraph [0038, lines 28-30], the third layer comprises about one monolayer of iodine.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Marsh, Satta et al., Klauk et al., and Vaartstra disclose related art.
